CLOSING EXERCISES.

St. Andrew's Priory Crowded With People—An Excellent Exhibition.

That St. Andrew's Priory is one of the most popular educational institutions was proven yesterday afternoon when a large audience gathered at the school hall and heartily applauded the excellent programme rendered by the young girls. It is a pity that the room is too small to hold the numerous friends and patrons of the institution who desire to be present and watch the progress of the children. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. It was beautifully decorated with flowers and bunting, and the pupil-looked in the pink of health and full of grace, life and beauty.

The musical portion of the programme deserves special mention for its excellence, and reflects great credit for the Sisters' tuition. A duet for piano and violin by Rose and Vivia Mossman was rendered in a most pleasing manner, as was the piano duet, "The Wandering Jew," by Annie Holt and Rowena Richardson. The audience, among whom were noticed the Bishop of Honolulu, Commissioner Hawer, and Minister and Mrs. Willis, appreciated every number of the programme, which was as follows:

Piano Duet—"Glohenburners Tochtelien" Max Osten
Sylvia Williams and Rose Stimers.
The Alphabet—Infants
Action Song—"Mother's Little Maiden"
Infants' Songs—Infants
"The Withered Flower"—Act
Class I.
Tambourine Duet—Class IV. and V.
"Let the King Kidding Hood"—Class VI.
Duet—Rose and Vivia Mossman.
"King of Egypt"—with English National Anthem.
Classes IV and V.
"The Wood Thrush"—Hatton
Class I.
"Grandmother's Dream"—Act Song.
Classes IV. and V.
Piano solo—"Grand Valse de Concert"—Tito Mattel
Kali.
"Meditation"—Class IV. and V.
"The Master"—Duet—Classes I. and II.
"Get out on the Moon"—Class III.
"Our Day"—Extemporaneous—Class I.
Piano Duet—"Le Joffier"—Annie Holt and Rowena Richardson.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

Y. H. I.

The meeting of the Young Hawaiians' Institute last evening was well attended and considerable business was transacted. Several new members were elected and others proposed. The Institute will assist the Hui Manawalea in a concert for the relief of the families of the political prisoners. The concert will take place on July 30. A concert will also be arranged by the Institute for the purpose of raising funds for a library. The financial showing of the Institute is very satisfactory and the club is decidedly progressive.

The Lei Ilima.

The meeting of the Lei Ilima Club last evening was well attended showing that dancing and sociability are still to the fore in Honolulu. Several new members were elected and other business transacted. The following officers were elected: E. A. Williams, president; W. McInerney, vice-president; James Holt, treasurer; J. M. Sims, secretary, and Dr. George H. Huddy, auditor.
